“Kingdom Life: Living Without Worry“
Matthew 6:25-34

- I. The context of Christ’s teaching regarding worry.
 - A. His audience lived fragile lives, susceptible to daily ruin.
 - B. To invest in God’s Kingdom meant less for them.

- II. Fear as the underlying current of worry.
 - A. Examples of how worry is driven by fear.
 - B. Our desire for control attempts to remove all fear.

- III. Jesus’ antidote to worry.
 - A. Be reminded of God’s care for all of creation.
 - B. The source of our worry can be a wrapped perspective of our Heavenly Father.

- IV. Seeking God’s Kingdom first.
